ADD- ON COURSE NAME: UNDERSTANDING HUMAN RIGHTS
(30 Hours)

shutterstock

IMAGE ID: 221817715

COURSE INTRODUCTION

The term 'human rights' which is used since World War II, gained importance in contemporary debates and became a universal phenomenon. After the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) on December 10, 1948 by the United Nations, it was seen by many as a sign of optimism for the better protection, promotion and enforcement of human rights.

Human rights are the basic rights available to any human being by virtue of his birth in human race. It is inherent in all human beings irrespective of their nationality, religion, language, sex, colour or any other consideration. The Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993 defines Human Rights as: "human rights" means the rights relating to life, liberty, equality and dignity of the individual guaranteed by the Constitution or

SUMMARY REPORT OF ADD-ON COURSE ENGLISH FOR CAREER DEVELOPMENT

by

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

PURBASTHALI COLLEGE

NAME OF THE COURSE

Add-on Course on “English for Career Development”

DURATION

Thirty (30) hours. The course commenced on 06.11.2019 and completed on 29.11.2019.

TOTAL NO. OF FACULTY MEMBERS TAKEN CLASSES

Dr. Soumya Mohan Ghosh and Mr. Biswanath Bhattacharyya took all the modules/ units of the course.

ADMITTED STUDENTS

47 (forty seven) students were admitted to the course after admission.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

Interested students applied for the course to the course coordinator. Following a verification process, eligible individuals were granted permission to participate.

MODE OF EVALUATION

The personal interview served as a pivotal component of the assessment process for the add-on course on “English for Career Development”. It provided a platform to gauge the participants’ understanding, application, and proficiency in academic writing skills beyond mere theoretical knowledge. It served to understand the following:

1. Depth of Understanding:

The interview allowed instructor to assess the depth of participants' understanding of the academic writing process, essay structure, clarity, coherence, and plagiarism avoidance.

2. Practical Application:

Participants were expected to demonstrate their ability to apply the learned academic writing skills in real-world scenarios.

3. Communication Skills:

Effective communication is essential in academic writing. During the interview, participants were evaluated on their verbal communication skills, including clarity, coherence, and articulation.

4. Critical Thinking:

The interview also served as a platform to assess participants' critical thinking.

5. Feedback and Improvement:

Additionally, the interview provided a valuable opportunity for instructor to provide personalized feedback to participants. Constructive feedback on strengths, areas for improvement, and specific strategies for enhancing their academic writing skills could be communicated, facilitating continuous learning and growth.

Overall, the personal interview as a mode of evaluation enriched the assessment process by offering a dynamic and interactive platform to evaluate participants' academic writing skills, communication abilities, and critical thinking.

CERTIFICATION

All the students attended classes regularly and sat for the examination and qualified. Accordingly, 47 (forty seven) certificates were issued to the successful candidates duly signed by the Principal and the course coordinator.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The objective of the course is to empower participants to navigate career opportunities with fluency and confidence in the global job market. The course aims to:

- Equip participants with advanced English language skills tailored for professional contexts.
- Enhance participants' ability to communicate effectively in various business settings, including meetings, presentations, and negotiations.
- Provide guidance on crafting professional documents such as resumes, cover letters, and emails with clarity and precision.
- Develop participants' confidence in participating in job interviews and networking events in English.

LEARNING OUTCOME

Upon completion of the course, participants achieved the following:

- Advanced English Language Proficiency: Participants demonstrated advanced English language skills tailored for professional contexts, enabling them to communicate fluently and confidently in diverse environments.
- Professional Document Writing: Participants developed the ability to craft polished resumes, cover letters, and professional emails with clarity, precision, and adherence to industry standards, enhancing their professional communication skills.
- Compelling Presentation Skills: Participants acquired the skills to plan and deliver compelling presentations, engaging audiences and overcoming public speaking challenges with confidence and professionalism.
- Improved Verbal Communication: The communication of the participants improved a bit after completing the course.

Interview Preparation Mastery: Participants learned about job interviews, having engaged in mock interviews and received constructive feedback to enhance their interview performance and confidence.

COURSE SUMMARY

The add-on course on “English for Career Development” provided college students with a comprehensive journey towards mastering essential skills for success in the global job market. Through a dynamic curriculum spanning advanced English language proficiency, effective communication strategies, and professional document writing, participants learned ways to communicate with clarity, and precision in diverse professional contexts. Moreover, the course equipped participants with the confidence and skills needed to excel in crucial aspects of career development, including delivering compelling presentations, mastering fluent verbal communication, preparing for job interviews, and navigating the job search process with confidence. By blending theoretical learning with practical exercises and interactive sessions, the course fostered a supportive learning environment where participants could not only acquire new skills but also apply them confidently to real-world scenarios.

The assessment process culminated in a personal interview, wherein participants demonstrated their understanding, application, and proficiency in academic writing skills. Through this dynamic evaluation method, instructors assessed participants' depth of understanding, practical application of learned skills, communication abilities, and critical thinking prowess. The interview not only provided a platform for personalized feedback but also facilitated continuous learning and improvement. Overall, the "English for Career Development" add-on course equipped participants with the knowledge, skills, and confidence.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, the "English for Career Development" add-on course was a transformative experience for participants, equipping them with essential skills and knowledge necessary for success in their career. Through engaging instruction, participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the topics. Moreover, the course fostered a supportive learning environment, enabling participants to not only acquire essential skills but also apply them confidently in real-world scenarios. With a newfound sense of confidence and competence, participants are well-equipped to pursue their career aspirations with vigor and impact.

Name of the Course: ECOLOGY AND ETHICS IN ANCIENT INDIAN PHILOSOPHY.

Duration of the Course: 30 Hours

No. of Students Enrolled: 37

No. of Students Certified: 37

Resource Persons Attended: Dr. Suchandra Neogi, Mr. Manik Das, Mr. Sujal Pramanick

Content Summary:

Ecology and Ethics is being taken seriously in the field of education these days. In this current course, the aspect of how to protect nature and Environment. The syllabus of this course has been developed completely outside the curriculum of Burdwan University. Students will learn aspects of Ecology and Ethics from various Upanishads, and Gita, Veda, Ramayana, Mahabharata, Puranas, philosophy etc. Syllabus of the course is: What is Ecology and Ethics. Ecology and ethics in purana (Ramayana, Mahabharata, Srimantragavadgita), Ecology and Ethics in Vadas and Upanishads, Ecology and ethics in Jainism, Ecology and ethics in Buddhism.

Objectives of the Course:

The extreme crisis of environmental pollution is one of the most important international problems in the context of the present time. Human societies driven by science and technology are driven in their way of life by excessive needs and greed. The crisis of the natural environment due to excessive use of underground natural resources, excessive deforestation due to urbanization and excessive population growth, etc. Continues to affect the present situation. It is not possible to get rid of this man-made natural crisis by using only science and technology, in the case the practice of moral discipline is also essential. The moral teaching of ancient Indian philosophy can be very relevant in solving this environmental crisis. In this course an attempt is made to explain the very brief identity of environmentalism based on Veda- Upanishad, Ramayana, Mahabharata, Srimantragavadgita, Jainism and Buddhism,

Course Outcome:

1. Students gain knowledge about ethics and ecology
2. Students have become aware of the ecology and ethics.
3. Students are protecting the ecology and ethics.
4. Students gain knowledge about the environmental philosophy that is addressd in vedas, Upanishads, Ramayana, Mahabharata, Gita, Puranas, Jainism and Buddhism.
