Concept Note

Research methodology serves as the cornerstone of any rigorous and credible research endeavor. It encompasses the systematic approach and techniques employed in the collection, analysis, and interpretation of data, ensuring the reliability, validity, and generalizability of research findings. However, researchers, particularly those in the early stages of their careers, often face challenges in navigating the complex landscape of research methodology. To address this crucial need, this workshop on "Mastering Research Methodology: Empowering Researchers" aims to equip participants with the essential knowledge, skills, and practical tools required to excel in their research endeavors. By providing a platform for interdisciplinary discussions and hands-on training, the workshop endeavors to empower researchers from various disciplines of social sciences to conduct high-quality research and contribute meaningfully to their respective fields.

The workshop will cover a wide range of topics, including an introduction to research paradigms and approaches, quantitative and qualitative research methods, ethical considerations, enhancing literature review skills, and practical tools and resources for effective research management. Through interactive lectures, and hands-on training sessions facilitated by experienced researchers and experts, participants will gain a comprehensive understanding of research methodologies and their application in diverse research contexts.

Introduction:

A One-day e-workshop on “Mastering Research Methodology: Empowering Researchers” was organized by IQAC, Purbasthali College, and Kandra Radha Kanta Kundu Mahavidyalaya on June 27, 2023 at 7.30 pm via Google Meet. .

Objective:

The one-day e-Workshop titled "Mastering Research Methodology: Empowering Researchers" aimed to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of research methodology, equipping them with the necessary tools and skills to conduct high-quality research effectively.

Key Discussions:

Introduction to Research Methodology, Definition and significance of research methodology, Types of research methodologies, Understanding the research process, Research Design, Formulating research questions, Selecting appropriate research designs (quantitative, qualitative, mixed-methods), Sampling techniques and sample size determination, Data Collection Methods, Surveys, interviews, focus groups, observation, and experiments, Ethical considerations in data collection, Data validity and reliability, Data Analysis Techniques, Quantitative analysis methods (e.g., descriptive statistics, inferential statistics), etc.

Outcome:

The workshop facilitated an enriching learning experience for participants, enabling them to:

- Gain a deeper understanding of research methodology.
- Enhance their skills in designing and conducting research studies.
- Learn practical techniques for data collection and analysis.
- Develop proficiency in writing research proposals and reports.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the one-day e-Workshop on "Mastering Research Methodology: Empowering Researchers" was a resounding success in achieving its objectives. Participants received valuable insights and practical guidance on various aspects of research methodology, empowering them to undertake research endeavors with confidence and proficiency. The workshop served as a platform for fostering collaboration, knowledge-sharing, and skill enhancement among researchers, contributing towards advancing the quality and impact of research outcomes.

INAUGURAL SESSION

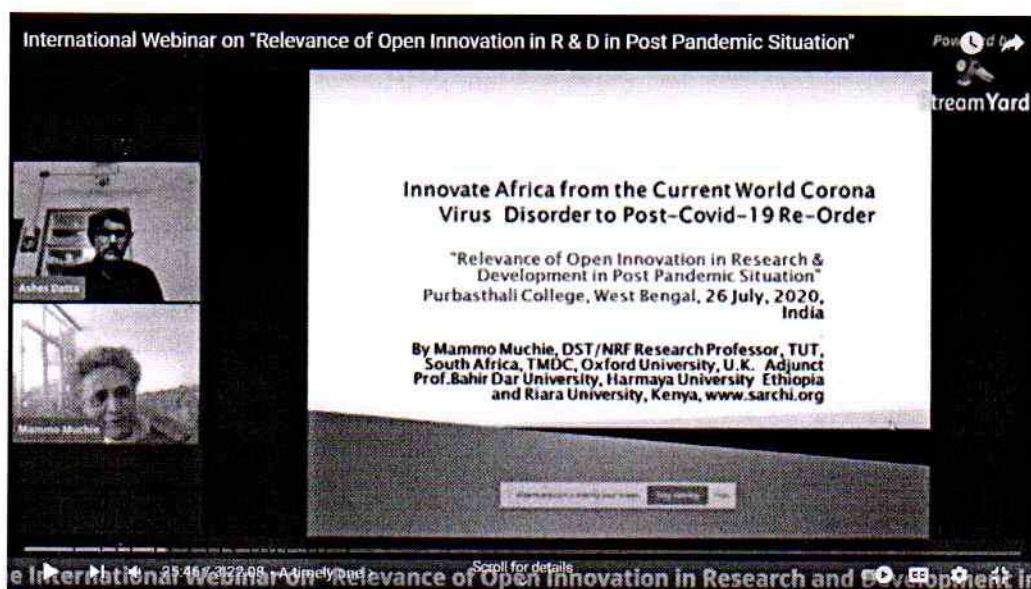

The event started with the convener Mr. Ashes Datta, welcoming the dignitaries on screen and introducing the theme and of the webinar. After that the Principal cum Chairperson of the webinar, Dr. Bibhas Chandra Saha, welcomed the guests and delivered the Chairperson's Speech. He extended a warm welcome to all the resource persons and the viewers and expressed his gratitude to the guests for gracing the occasion. The inaugural session ended with the Convener's Speech in which Mr. Ashes Datta remarked that " the Outbreak of Covid -19 virus devastated the human life and changed the way we function globally and has triggered research and development in different directions by many organizations collaboratively or individually. This situation has imposed some new challenges to the R&D organizations. Some of the major challenges ahead of us like- Should R&D organizations continue their discreet efforts to find the solution on their own and rely solely on in-house expertise? Can the R&D organizations still be able to counter it individually when the threat is of a global scale? And if a company comes up with innovative solution, how will that solution be stopped from becoming a proprietary item protected by exclusive rights? Should we revisit and or reform our mechanisms for protecting intellectual property rights? Is there any alternative approach that can add much more versatility and transparency to R&D to these corporate R&D organizations?" He also concluded his speech by pointing out the

INAUGURAL SESSION

The event started with the convener cum host, Dr. Soumya Mohan Ghosh, welcoming the dignitaries on screen and introducing the theme of the webinar. After that the Principal cum Chairperson of the webinar, Dr. Bibhas Chandra Saha, welcomed the guests and delivered the Chairperson's Speech. He extended a warm welcome to all the resource persons and the viewers and expressed his gratitude to the guests for gracing the occasion. The inaugural session ended with the Convener's Speech in which Dr. Soumya Mohan Ghosh remarked that even after more than four decades since the United Nations first celebrated International Women's Day in the year 1975 following the publication of "Towards Equality" report in 1974 gender continued to remain one of the important markers in our society. The historical process of constructing gender identity, he opined, was a continuous phenomenon that can be found reflected in literature, society, and culture, as well as in films which were the integral part of any society and culture. He said that women were either celebrated as desexualized elevated beings or devalued as over-sexualized seductresses. However, over the years, he was of the opinion that gender had become a contested domain as more and more women were trying to address the issues related to women, but, the issues of women of color, Asian women, lesbian, queer, trans-women still needed critical attention. He concluded his speech by saying that the event aspired to address some of those issues.

SESSION 1

After the end of the inaugural session, the first session began in which the speaker was Dr. Tanima Kumari, Assistant Professor in the Department of English, C.M. College Darbhanaga under the Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga, India. The title of her lecture was "Representation of Women and Self in Bollywood Movies". She dealt in detail about the representation of women in Hindi cinema and how the 'male gaze' was operating in the industry. Her presentation revealed the operation of gender bias, male gaze, and the type of representations that women had in the films over the years. The session ended with a brief discussion and question-answer session.

INTRODUCTION

A Two-day International e-Conference on “Surpassing Boundaries to Create/Critique Identities: A Praxis of ‘Female’” was organized by the Department of English on June 29-30, 2020 from 5 p.m. IST (GMT + 5.30). The event aimed at addressing the sexual politics surfaced in the society and how the stereotypical representations of women were deconstructed along with issues of politics of gender, sexuality, transnational solidarity, political activism, among others. The programme was part of the institute’s endeavour to go beyond the confined spaces in the time of the pandemic to embrace the world and connect with the global audience to continue the academic activity. The e-conference was streamed live in the YouTube platform so that viewers of all over the world could access the event.

PARTICIPATION

The e-conference witnessed three thousand four hundred and four views in which delegates including academicians, faculty members, research scholars, UG and PG students from six countries— including India, Bangladesh, Nepal, Azerbaijan, Norway, and Saudi Arabia— participated. Participants from various parts of India, like West Bengal, Telangana, Assam, Kerala, Nagaland, Jharkhand, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, Arunachal Pradesh, Bihar, Tamil Nadu, Delhi, Punjab, Karnataka, Chhattisgarh, Himachal Pradesh, Maharashtra, Uttarakhand, Madhya Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Gujarat, Odisha, Sikkim, Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu, Jammu and Kashmir, Haryana, and Andaman and Nicobar Islands, attended the event. Eight hundred and seventy six delegates registered for the event and two hundred and forty one participants submitted the Feedback Form circulated during the event. Nine abstracts were submitted among which six were selected for presentation in the e-conference.

INAUGURAL SESSION

The event started with the convener cum host, Dr. Soumya Mohan Ghosh, welcoming the dignitaries on screen and introducing the theme of the e-conference. Mrs. Pratyusha Ghosh, faculty of the Department of Sanskrit, Purbasthali College, was requested to formally inaugurate the event with a song. After that the Principal cum Chairperson of the e-conference, Dr. Bibhas Chandra Saha, welcomed the guests and delivered the Chairperson's Speech. He extended a warm welcome to all the resource persons and the viewers and expressed his gratitude to the guests for gracing the occasion. The inaugural session ended with the Convener's Speech in which Dr. Soumya Mohan Ghosh remarked that women in literature were mostly constructed as a sexualized object in the dominant patriarchal discourse. The category of woman was a fictional construction, developed, and naturalized over the ages through the writing of the male authors. He also continued that women fit into the category of either a desexualized goddess or an over sexualized whore. It was very recently and sometimes intermittently that these stereotypes were challenged and the boundaries meant for containing were surpassed, but it was not always received cordially. He concluded that the e-conference strived to address some of those issues in the duration of two days.

SESSION 1- KEYNOTE ADDRESS

After the end of the inaugural session, the first session began in which the Keynote Address was given by Prof. Anita Singh, Professor, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, India. The title of her address was "Performance Art as a Site of Gender Resistance and Faith". Prof. Singh stated that theatre was a very contentious space where the once excluded women took hold of the powerful medium and sought to redress the age-old neglect, stereotyping, gender bias, and sexism. Her presentation demonstrated how the proliferation of women's voices broke the barriers and posed resistance against gender based oppressions. The session ended with a brief discussion and question-answer session.

SESSION 3- PLENARY SESSION I

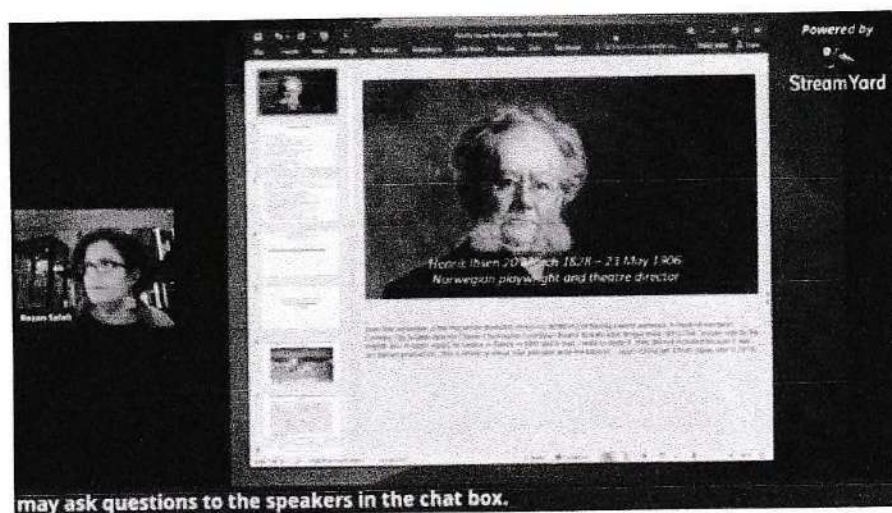

The second day of the e-conference started with the first Plenary Address by Dr. Pinaki De, Associate Professor, Department of English, Raja Peary Mohan College, Uttarpara, West Bengal, India. The title of his talk was "Drawing themselves: Women Comics Creators and their Art". He highlighted that the comics industry with its association of strong masculine protagonists, superheroes, and the presupposition of young male consumers was a male dominated genre, where women had to fight their way through the misogyny, male bias, and sexism. His presentation revealed how the women were able to draw themselves and present an alternate vision. The session ended with a brief discussion and question-answer session.

About the Seminar

21st Century, to a great extent, has changed the goals and quality of education worldwide. We know that, within the period of global pandemic, educational system had gone through dramatic changes, which drastically alters our traditional way of thinking and brought in new phrases like, Entrepreneurship, start-ups, proto type etc. The use of modern ICT based technologies in educational sectors and blended mode of learning are part and parcel of each educational institute due to this change. Irrespective of changes the aim of education is still unchanged and directed towards all-round development of a learner.

The impact of globalization and digitization had a great role that molded our lives. To perpetuate education to the grassroots level, it is necessary to understand the idea of Sustainable Development in Education. Sustainable Development in Education allows every human being to acquire the knowledge, skills, attitudes and values necessary to save a sustainable future, which was described as the primary objective of the National Education Policy 2020. NEP 2020 is undoubtedly a comprehensive policy that covers all aspects of education, from early childhood education to higher education and vocational training. The policy also seeks to create a more flexible and adoptive education system that can meet the needs of students and the economy as a whole. Value based education shall always play a key role in the development of mindset of a child as well as help our society to be benevolent as our core values are moral guides according to study.

The objective of the seminar is to cultivate all the above ideas by exploring logical reasoning and critical analysis of the recent reform in educational sectors, from Primary School to Higher Education levels. It is also aimed to develop multiple avenues which will be beneficial for the student as well as the teachers and all other who are associated with academia. By articulating value based quality education one can go deeper into the ideas of what was depicted in the first line of NEP - 2020 that "Education is fundamental for achieving full human potential, developing an equitable and just society and promoting National Development."

Education as multidisciplinary approach was given priority in recent times. Pedagogical approaches too are being juxtaposed with active learning, lesson planning, and active processing of information, technology and real world applications on professional practices which are tuned with modern approach to education. Indeed, with time, the educational thinker and people associated with academia have extended positive role towards academic environment and created a sustainable outlook for academic fraternity, where students and teachers can cope up with issue and challenges they faced; moreover where student will learn by doing, they can be the future master of Atmanirbhar Bharat or self-reliant India. In a large perspective, the new education will be valuable for all the aspirant of new generation.

বিষয় : সার্থ-শতবর্ষে ঋষি অরবিন্দ

প্রধান বক্তা : শ্রী রতিনাক্ত জেন, সহযোগী অধ্যাপক, ঐতিহাস বিভাগ, কাটোয়া কলেজ

স্থান : পূর্বস্থলী কলেজ, পাতলিয়া, পূর্ব বর্ধমান

উনিশ শতকের নবজাগৃতির ত্রাস্তি লগ্নে আবির্ভূত ঋষি অরবিন্দ জাতীয় চেতনা ও সংস্কৃতির প্রকৃত সংরক্ষক। ঔপনিবেশিকতার বিরুদ্ধে ঔপনিষদিক ভাবাদর্শের প্রকৃত উন্মাতা। বঙ্কিমচন্দ্র - রাজনারায়ণ - বিবেকানন্দের মস্তিস্কপ্রসূত যে 'হিন্দু রিভাইভালিজম' প্রাচীন ভারতের পুরনো ঐতিহ্য ও পরম্পরাকে হাতিয়ার করে ঔপনিবেশিক প্রভুদের বিরুদ্ধে রাজনৈতিক ও বৌদ্ধিকভাবে স্বাদেশিকতার উল্লেখ ঘটিয়েছিল ঋষি অরবিন্দ সেই ধারার সর্বশেষ উন্মাতা। দেবভূমি ভারতবর্ষের মহান ঋষিকুলের সর্বশেষ ঋষি তিনি। কারুর চোখে তিনি মহাত্ম্যগী দেবাদিদেব মহাদেবের অবতার স্বরূপ, আবার কেউ বা তাঁকে দেখেছেন বিপ্লববাদের মূর্ত প্রতীক হিসেবে। এরই পাশাপাশি তিনি সেকালের বিদ্বৎসমাজের অন্যতম মুখপত্র। তাঁর হাত ধরে প্রাচীন ভারতীয় ধর্মসাহিত্য নব ভাষ্য লাভ করেছে। তিনি সাবলীলভাবে ভারতীয় দর্শনের স্মৃতিপ্রস্থান, শ্রুতিপ্রস্থান ও তর্কপ্রস্থান অবলম্বনে তাদের ধর্মীয় ভাষ্য প্রকাশ করেছেন। তাঁর এই নব ভাষ্যের পরিচয় পাওয়া যাবে 'Essays on the Gita', 'On the Vedas' এবং 'Hymns to the Mystic Fire' প্রভৃতি বহুখ্যাত গ্রন্থে। এছাড়া 'The Life Divine', 'The Synthesis of yoga, The Human cycle', 'The Ideal of Human Unity'

প্রভৃতি গ্রন্থে তাঁর অতিনব দার্শনিক চিন্তার প্রতিফলন ঘটেছে। ভারতীয় ধর্ম দর্শনের পাশাপাশি শ্রী অরবিন্দ প্রাচীন ভারতের শিল্প - কাব্য - সাহিত্য - সংস্কৃতিকেও এদেশের অক্ষয় সম্পদ হিসেবে দেখেছেন। ফলে তাঁর হাতে ভারতীয় শিল্প সাহিত্যের নতুন নান্দনিক ব্যাখ্যা গড়ে উঠেছে।

একুশ শতকের প্রারম্ভিক লগ্নে যখন পরানুকরণ, জড়বাদী চিন্তা, আত্মঘাতী সংঘাত মানব সমাজকে ক্রমশ এক নেতির দিকে নিয়ে যাচ্ছে তখন শ্রী অরবিন্দের দার্শনিক ভাবনা ও মনন বিশ্ব নিশ্চয় আমাদেরকে নতুনভাবে সঙ্গীভিত করবে। এ'বছর তাঁর আবির্ভাবের সার্থ-শতবর্ষে তাই আমরা শ্রী অরবিন্দের ভাবাদর্শকে নতুনভাবে আবিষ্কার করার চেষ্টা করবো।

যাঁরা প্রাঙ্গণিক বিষয়ের উপর গবেষণার উপস্থাপন করতে চান তাঁরা আগামী ০৯ সেপ্টেম্বরে মধ্যে বিদ্বলিখিত মেইল আই ডি তে গবেষণাপত্রের সারাংশ পাঠাতে পারেন।

on
"Sardho Satobarsker aloke Rishi Aurobindo"

The seminar started with the lighting of lamp by the distinguished guests and dignitaries of the college and followed by inaugural song by Smt. Pratyusha Ghosh, faculty member of Sanskrit Dept. of Purbasthali college. The welcome address given by the principal of Purbasthali college, Dr. Bibhas Chandra Saha. The IQAC co-ordinator of Purbasthali college, Dr. Soumya Mohan Ghosh delivered a brief introductory speech. Prof. Ayan Chakraborty, faculty member of History Dept. of Purbasthali college delivered the concept note of the seminar. After that an elaborate lecture was presented by Prof. Rabi Ranjan Sen, Associate professor and HOD of History Dept. of Katwa college. Post lunch in two parallel technical sessions thirteen faculty members from different institutions presented their various research papers on Aurobindo Ghosh. In the valedictory session Prof. Anupam Das, convener of the seminar provided valedictory address and delivered vote of thanks. Programme ended with the National Anthem of India. Near about one hundred fifty audience attended this one day state level seminar on Sardho Satobarsker Alope Rishi Aurobindo.

বাংলাদেশের লেখকের রচিত সাহিত্য বাংলা-সাহিত্যের অন্তর্গত। অথচ পশ্চিমবাংলার পাঠকেরা এই সাহিত্যের সঙ্গে বিশেষ পরিচিত নন। বিংশ শতাব্দীর মধ্যবিন্দুতে এসে ১৯৪৭ খ্রিস্টাব্দে অবিভক্ত ভারতের অঙ্গরাজ্য ভাগ হবার সঙ্গে সঙ্গে অবিভক্ত বাংলা দ্বিখণ্ডিত হয়েছিল রাষ্ট্রিক কূটনীতির ফলে। তারপর থেকেই বাংলা সাহিত্যকেও যেন খণ্ডিত করে দিয়েছে এই ধর্মের ভিত্তিতে দেশ ভাগের দুর্ভাগ্য। আজকে আমরা সেই ভূখণ্ডের সাহিত্যের সঙ্গে পরিচিত হবার চেষ্টা করব। বুঝে নিতে চাইব বাংলাদেশের সাহিত্যের গতিপ্রকৃতিকে। বিশিষ্ট বক্তাদের মূল্যবান বক্তব্যের মধ্য দিয়ে বাংলাদেশের সাহিত্যকে অনুধাবন করাই আজ আমাদের লক্ষ্য।

INTRODUCTION - Literary writers of Bangladesh practice their literature in Bengali language. Our literary language is also Bengali. Therefore, if we do not read the literature of Bangladesh, our literary practice is incomplete. In this seminar, we wanted to know the literature of Bangladesh in detail.

Summary of the Speech:

The mental health and well-being of students are crucial aspects that impact their academic performance and overall quality of life. It's important for educational institutions to prioritize providing support services, promoting a positive learning environment, and fostering open discussions about mental health. Students should be encouraged to seek help when needed, and schools can offer resources such as counseling services, workshops, and stress management programs. Regular check-ins and awareness campaigns can contribute to creating a campus culture that values mental health.

Over the past few months, the normal life cycle of people around the world has changed dramatically. This sudden change has affected people's mental health. Various mental difficulties such as mental exhaustion, anxiety, worry have engulfed the human mind. The current new generation is no exception. There are various reasons for the deterioration of human mental health in extreme cases and we think it is necessary to discuss the issue. That is why we have decided to hold this kind of seminar on the importance of mental health of the new generation. The speakers presented their valuable speech about "Mental Health and Wellbeing of Students". In this webinar, was discussed some sub-theme like, Mental health and wellbeing of students, Stress management of adolescence period, Professional stress management, Family value and mental stress etc. We have enriched ourselves a lot from this discussion. This discussion will show our new generation the right path to survive. This programme has been successful with the cooperation of faculty members, speakers, participants. Hopefully we can organize of this kind of programme in future.

Summary of the Speech:

Over the past few months, the normal life cycle of people around the world has changed dramatically. This sudden change has affected people's mental health. Various mental difficulties such as mental exhaustion, anxiety, worry have engulfed the human mind. The current new generation is no exception. There are various reasons for the deterioration of human mental health in extreme cases and we think it is necessary to discuss the issue. That is why we have decided to hold this kind of seminar on the importance of mental health of the new generation. The speakers presented their valuable speech about "Mental Stress and Suicidal Tendencies of New Generation in Pandemic Situation". In this webinar, was discussed some sub-theme like, Mental health and mental stress are two sides of the same coin, Stress management in the light of Indian philosophy, Battle of depression like a new world war, Mental stress and suicidal tendency: cause and prevention in Indian perspective, Corona virus pandemic create 'Perfect Storm' for suicide risk in new generation, Opportunity and threat of covid-19 pandemic in Indian academic perspective etc. We have enriched ourselves a lot from this discussion. This discussion will show our new generation the right path to survive. This programme has been successful with the cooperation of faculty members, speakers, participants. Hopefully we can organize of this kind of programme in future.

INTRODUCTION

A One-day National Webinar on “Philosophical Thoughts of Sanskrit Literature” was organised by the Department of Sanskrit in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Purbasthali College on August 26, 2020 from 4 p.m. IST. The event aimed to present Sanskrit with its vast philosophical aspect which tries to focus a vision of an interconnected universe with a single, unifying principle behind the apparent diversity in the cosmos, any articulation of which is called Brahman, the unchanging core of human individual. The webinar was streamed live in the YouTube platform as to have convenience of accessibility for the viewers of all over the world.

PARTICIPATION

The webinar witnessed approximately one thousand viewers in which delegates including academicians, faculty members, research scholars, UG and PG students from all over the country. One hundred and eighty three delegates registered for the event and one hundred thirty four participants submitted the Feedback Form circulated during the event.

INAUGURAL SESSION

The event started with the convener Mrs Susmita Mondal, welcoming the dignitaries on screen and introducing the theme of the webinar. Preceding the Mangalacharanam and inaugural song sung by Mrs Pratyusha Ghosh, the Principal cum Chairperson of the webinar, Dr. Bibhas Chandra Saha, welcomed the guests and delivered the Chairperson’s speech. He extended a warm welcome to all the resource persons and the viewers. He expressed also his gratitude towards the guests for gracing the occasion. The inaugural session ended with the Convener's speech where Mrs Susmita Mondal introduced with the resource person Dr. Pritilaxmi Swain.

SESSION I

After the end of the inaugural session, the first session began in which the main speaker was Dr. Pritilaxmi Swain, Assistant Professor in the Department of Sanskrit, Pali & Prakrit, Visva-Bharati University, Santiniketan, West Bengal, India. The title of her lecture was “वाक्यपदीयस्य ब्रह्मकाण्डे शब्दब्रह्मणः स्वरूपम्”. She, at first, did मङ्गलाचरणम्, prayer to the almighty. Professor Swain detailed about the subject matter and importance of the book वाक्यपदीयम् which is authored by भर्तृहरिः. Bhartrihari was a great grammarian and philosopher who explored the depth and breadth of Sanskrit grammar. Her presentation revealed the real nature of the speech element शब्दतत्त्व or शब्दब्रह्म which is eternal and beyond birth or death. She also elucidated शब्दब्रह्म as the all pervaded essence of the universe.

This session ended with a brief discussion and question-answer session.

SESSION 2

After the end of the first session, the second session started in which Dr. Swapan Mal, Assistant Professor in the Department of Sanskrit, Raiganj University, North Dinajpur, West Bengal, delivered a lecture, titled “उपनिषद्वाङ्मये आनन्दतत्त्वानुसन्धानम्”. He presents the meaning of Upanishad with its major theme. His presentation also revealed the Ananda Tattva of Upanishads in which he elucidates Ananda As the eternal bliss which accompanies the ending of the rebirth cycle. in this context he mentioned different Upanishads with their Ananda theme. This session ended with a brief discussion and question-answer session.

ONE-DAY NATIONAL WEBINAR ON "PHILOSOPHY AND LIFE"

Organized by the Department of Philosophy

25th July 2021, 10:00 a.m. onwards via YouTube Streaming Link

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FvAiLJBKbhs>

ABOUT THE WEBINAR

Philosophy is not a theory but a vision of life. It is not merely 'love of wisdom' but signifies a real 'possession' of it. The philosophers are therefore not professors, academicians or doctrinaires, or even 'spectators', but true participants of life in its real meaning and relationship. Philosophy is a well-coordinated and systematized attempt at evaluating life and the universe as a whole. It is an impartial approach to all problems and aspects of life and existence. It is an essential set of skills for living well. To live life to the full requires balance, empathy, reason and the development of a purposeful sense of what life is for. Philosophy is a conversion, a transformation of one's way of being and living, and a quest for wisdom. That is why, philosophy and life is the quest of our Webinar.

INTRODUCTION:

Human rights play a significant role in India due to its diverse population and complex social fabric. While progress has been made in certain areas, there are ongoing concerns. India has a vibrant democracy with civil and political rights protected by the Constitution, but restrictions on these rights have been observed. Gender equality remains a challenge, with issues such as violence and discrimination against women. Caste-based discrimination persists despite legal prohibitions, affecting marginalized communities. Religious freedom faces challenges, although secularism and pluralism are valued. LGBTQ+ rights have seen positive legal developments, but social acceptance and equality are ongoing issues. The right to education is recognized, but challenges like high dropout rates and disparities remain. Concerns about press freedom exist, including censorship and harassment of journalists. However, individuals and organizations work to address human rights issues and bring about positive change. In this regard, Purbasthali College and Bolpur College, in collaboration with IQAC, organized a seminar on 30th June 2023 aimed at addressing issues in human rights and Indian scenario.

INAUGURATION:

The seminar commenced around 11 am. The seminar commenced with an inaugural ceremony, graced by the presence of faculty members, students, and esteemed guests. The Principal of Purbasthali College, Dr. Bibhas Chandra Saha, delivered a warm welcome address, setting the tone for an enlightening session ahead.

SESSION:

In the first session, Dr. Debnarayan Modak, in his comprehensive seminar, shed light on various facets of human rights in the Indian context. He delved into historical perspectives, legal frameworks, contemporary challenges, and future prospects concerning human rights in India. Prof. Gargi Sengupta focused on the critical examination of human rights through the lens of women's perspectives, exploring the challenges, progress, and future directions in ensuring gender equality and women's rights.

INTERACTIVE SESSION:

Following the seminar, an interactive session was held where participants had the opportunity to engage with Dr. Debnarayan Modak through questions, discussions, and sharing of perspectives. The exchange of ideas enriched the learning experience and encouraged critical reflection on the subject matter.

SECOND SESSION :

During the technical session post-lunch, scholars, teachers, and students presented their papers on various topics. Five presenters covered subjects ranging from human rights, offering diverse perspectives and insights. The session facilitated an exchange of ideas and stimulated discussions among attendees, fostering a collaborative atmosphere for academic exploration.

CONCLUSION:

The seminar on "Perspectives of Human Rights: Indian Scenario" facilitated a deeper understanding of the complexities surrounding human rights issues in India. Dr. Debnarayan Modak's insightful presentation, coupled with interactive dialogue, inspired attendees to contemplate their roles in upholding and advocating for human rights principles in their respective spheres. Professor Gargi Sengupta's presentation provided a comprehensive overview of human rights from a women's perspective, offering valuable insights into the challenges and opportunities in the pursuit of gender equality. The event underscored the importance of continued dialogue, advocacy, and collective action to uphold women's rights as fundamental human rights.

Concept Note

“The limits of my language mean the limits of my world.” – Ludwig Wittgenstein

The beginning of the twentieth century was a moment of recognition for the disciplines of Humanities and Social Sciences as the relation between language and the world were re-imagined revealing that there was no objective reality between the language used and the object it signified. The Continental philosophers and linguists, like Ludwig Wittgenstein and Ferdinand de Saussure, shaped ‘the linguistic turn’ that later developed into Structuralist and Poststructuralist thoughts and Deconstruction. The inherent link between the signifier and the signified was questioned and it was demonstrated that the bond between the real ‘chair’ (signified) and the signifier ‘chair’ was “no fixed bond.” The linguistic turn facilitated the free play of signifiers and rejected the notion of metaphysics and transcendental signification.

The proposed seminar will centre on the following sub-themes:

Sub-themes:

- Linguistic Turn in Literature
- Linguistic Turn in Philosophy
- Applied Linguistics in Literary Studies
- Interaction between Linguistic and Literary Theory
- Stylistics and Practice
- Linguistic Turn in Allied Disciplines

Above sub-themes are only indicative and not exhaustive. Presenters/ scholars can explore any area within the broader framework of the seminar.

Introduction:

A One-day National Seminar on “Literary Theory and the Linguistic Turn” was organized by the Department of English, in collaboration with IQAC, Purbasthali College, and Katwa College (under MoU) on September 15, 2022 at Seminar Hall from 11.00 am. The aimed to explore the profound impact of the linguistic turn on literary theory, elucidating its theoretical underpinnings and its implications for literary analysis and interpretation.

Objectives:

- Understanding Literary Theory: The primary objective of the seminar was to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of literary theory, particularly focusing on the concept of the linguistic turn.
- Exploring Linguistic Perspectives: The seminar aimed to explore the influence of linguistic theories and methodologies on literary criticism, highlighting the shift towards language-centered approaches in the analysis of literary texts.

- Critical Engagement: Through discussions, presentations, and analysis of seminal texts, the seminar sought to encourage critical engagement with key theoretical concepts and their application to literary analysis.
- Fostering Dialogue: The seminar aimed to foster dialogue and exchange of ideas among participants, facilitating a deeper understanding of the relationship between language, literature, and culture.
- Enhancing Analytical Skills: By engaging with various literary theories and linguistic approaches, the seminar aimed to enhance participants' analytical skills and critical thinking abilities in the interpretation and evaluation of literary texts.

Key Discussions:

The seminar commenced with an overview provided by the Convener, Dr. Soumya Mohan Ghosh on the linguistic turn, tracing its origins in 20th-century philosophy, particularly the works of Ludwig Wittgenstein, Ferdinand de Saussure, and J.L. Austin. The Keynote speaker, Mr. Atanu Kumar Paul, Assistant Professor, Department of English, JMS College Munger delved into how this philosophical shift revolutionized literary studies by emphasizing language as a primary site of meaning-making and textual interpretation. Plenary speaker, Mrs. Abhinanda Chakraborty, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Chandidas Mahavidyalaya, embarked on an insightful exploration into the intricate relationship between language and literature, elucidating the transformative impact of the linguistic turn on literary theory and criticism. In the Technical Sessions, paper presenters explored various aspects of the linguistic turn's influence on literary theory, including structuralism, post-structuralism, deconstruction, and reader-response theory. Discussions delved into how concepts such as signifier and signified, language as a system of differences, and the indeterminacy of meaning have reshaped our understanding of literature and literary interpretation.

Outcome:

- Enhanced Understanding: Participants gained a deeper understanding of the influence of linguistic theories on literary criticism, recognizing the significance of the linguistic turn in reshaping scholarly approaches to literature.

 H.O.D
 Department of English

- Critical Engagement: The seminar fostered critical engagement with key theoretical concepts and methodologies, empowering participants to apply linguistic perspectives to their analysis of literary texts.
- Interdisciplinary Insights: Participants gained interdisciplinary insights into the intersections between language, literature, and culture, recognizing the relevance of diverse theoretical frameworks in enriching their understanding of literary phenomena.
- Methodological Versatility: The seminar equipped participants with a repertoire of methodological tools and analytical approaches, enabling them to navigate the complexities of literary analysis with greater precision and nuance.
- Stimulated Inquiry: The seminar stimulated further inquiry and exploration into the dynamic relationship between language and literature, inspiring participants to pursue independent research and scholarship in the field of literary theory.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the seminar on "Literary Theory and the Linguistic Turn" provided a comprehensive exploration of the profound impact of linguistic theory on literary studies. By delving into the theoretical foundations and practical applications of the linguistic turn, participants gained valuable insights into contemporary approaches to literary analysis and interpretation.

Concept Note

Basic human values refer to those values which are at the core of being human and which are considered basic inherent values in humans include truth, honesty, loyalty, love, peace, etc. because they bring out the fundamental goodness of human beings and society at large. The five Basic human values which are expected in all human beings, whether they are employees or not and whichever profession or service, are right conduct, peace, truth, peaceful co-existence, Discipline. Professionally accepted standards of personal and business behavior, values and guiding principles. Codes of professional ethics are often established by professional organizations to help to guide members in performing their job functions according to sound and consistent ethical principles Professional ethics may be understood as professionally acknowledged measures of individual and business conduct, values, and guiding principles. Professional ethics is nothing but a code of conduct applicable to different professions and is set up by the expert members of such profession or professional organizations. The underlying philosophy of having professional ethics is to make the persons performing in such jobs to follow the sound, uniform ethical conduct.

মানুষ বুদ্ধিবৃত্তি সম্পন্ন জীব হলেও শুধু বুদ্ধি নয়, তার আছে এক অসীম কৌতূহল। এই কৌতূহল মানুষের মনে আনে অসংখ্য প্রশ্ন, তাই সে জানতে চায় সে কি স্বাধীন, না কি নিয়ন্ত্রিত? সত্য, শিব সুন্দরের আদর্শ কি বাস্তব না কি মানব মনের সৃষ্টি? আর এই প্রশ্নের জিজ্ঞাসা আমাদের নিয়ে যায় নীতি ও নৈতিকতার আলোচনায়। মানুষ শুধু বাঁচতে চায় না, সে ভালোভাবে বাঁচতে চায়। ভালোভাবে বাঁচতে হলে প্রয়োজন নিজেকে জানা, নিজের স্বরূপ, লক্ষ্য ও পরিণাম কি তা উপলব্ধি করা। অর্থাৎ জীবনের প্রকৃত অর্থ ও মূল্য উপলব্ধি করা। এক্ষেত্রে ভারতীয় দর্শনের ভূমিকা অপরিসীম। বস্তুত ভারতীয় দর্শনের মূল শ্রোতের ছত্রে ছত্রে রয়েছে নৈতিকতা, ধর্ম ও আধ্যাত্মিকতা। এখানে মানুষের লক্ষ্য হিসাবে পুরুষার্থ রূপে ধর্ম, অর্থ, কাম ও মোক্ষের আলোচনা করা হয়েছে যা মানব জীবনের নীতি ও নৈতিকতাকে প্রকাশ করে। আমরা দেখি, ঋক্ বেদে এক অলঙ্ঘনীয় নৈতিক শক্তি বা নিয়মের কথা বলা হয়েছে যা 'ঋত' নামে পরিচিত, মীমাংসা দর্শনে 'অপূর্ব' নামে, ন্যায়-বৈশেষিক দর্শনে 'অদৃষ্ট' নামে এবং সাধারণভাবে 'কর্মনীতি' নামে চিহ্নিত করা হয়েছে। এই কর্মনীতি সার কথা হল—জীবনে সুখদুঃখ ভোগ কর্মেরই ফল। কর্ম করলে তদনুসারে ফল পেতেই হবে—ভাল কাজের ভাল ফল, মন্দ কাজের মন্দ ফল। এই অমোঘ নৈতিক নিয়মকে দেবতারাও অমান্য করতে পারেন না।

INTRODUCTION – The first half of the 20 th century was an important period in Bengali literature. At this time Bengali society and culture was going through a great upheaval. Independence, partition, unemployment, refugee problems pushed the Bengali life into a terrible crisis at that time. This picture of the society was captured by the writers of that time. The aim of the seminar was to elaborate on the literature of that period.

INTRODUCTION:

The trajectory of Indian politics post-independence has been marked by significant shifts and complexities. Despite lacking the conventional prerequisites of democracy, India has remarkably sustained its democratic system amidst challenges. Initially, a single party dominated the political scene, but subsequent decades saw the rise of diverse social forces such as caste, religion, class, linguistic groups, and minority interests, altering the political landscape. Institutional behaviors, including parliament, the presidency, judiciary, and bureaucracy, have evolved over time. Federal relations have also shaped political dynamics. The transition from one-party dominance to a multi-party system, notably with the emergence of regional parties, transformed governance at both national and state levels. Constitutional amendments empowering local governments exemplify this shift. A pivotal event was the introduction of neoliberal economic policies in the early 1990s, fundamentally altering India's political economy. Despite challenges and transformations, India's democracy endures, challenging pessimistic forecasts and demonstrating resilience amid change. In this regard, Purbasthali College and Kalna College, in collaboration with IQAC, organized a seminar on 27th September 2022 aimed at addressing issues in contemporary Indian politics.

INAUGURATION:

The seminar commenced promptly at 11:00 AM with an inauguration ceremony. The Principal of Purbasthali College warmly extended a welcome address to all attendees, setting a congenial tone for the event. Following this, the Principal of Kalna College delivered an insightful discourse, articulating his views on the prevailing trends and challenges within contemporary Indian Politics.

SESSION:

In the first session, Dr. Arindam Roy addresses the complexities of the post-colonial era, exploring India's challenges and opportunities in the wake of independence. Dr. Subhas singha Roy focuses on the task of reconstructing India following independence, examining the efforts and strategies involved in nation-building. Dr. Molly Ghosh delves into the intersection of secularism and gender perspectives, analyzing the dilemmas and dynamics within India's secular framework from a gender lens. Following the presentation, a lively interactive session took place. Students enthusiastically asked questions and shared their experiences related to the contemporary Indian Politics.

The second session commenced post-lunch, transitioning into a technical segment where a total of ten presenters, comprising scholars, teachers, and students, showcased their research papers on designated topics. Each presenter offered unique insights and perspectives, contributing to a vibrant exchange of ideas within the seminar setting.

CONCLUSION:

In conclusion, the seminar provided a comprehensive exploration of various facets of contemporary Indian politics and society. The first session featured thought-provoking presentations by Dr. Arindam Roy, Dr. Subhas Singha Roy, and Dr. Molly Ghosh, who delved into critical topics such as post-colonial challenges, nation-building efforts, and the intersection of secularism and gender perspectives. The ensuing interactive session fostered dynamic engagement among attendees, with students actively participating by posing questions and sharing their experiences.

The subsequent technical session showcased the diverse research endeavors of scholars, teachers, and students, further enriching the discourse with their unique insights and perspectives. Collectively, these sessions underscored the seminar's significance as a platform for intellectual exchange and scholarly dialogue.

Overall, the seminar served as a valuable forum for enhancing understanding and awareness of the multifaceted issues shaping contemporary Indian politics and society. It not only facilitated knowledge dissemination but also inspired critical thinking and reflection among participants, thereby contributing to the advancement of academic discourse in this field.

Concept Note

This seminar aims to provide a platform for educators, researchers, and policymakers to discuss the challenges and opportunities presented by the post-COVID-19 in the field of educational landscape which was disrupted by the pandemic. The discussions will revolve around the following topics:

- Pedagogical approaches in the post-COVID-19 world: Adapting to a hybrid model
- Digital divide: Access and equity in remote learning
- Mental health and well-being of students and teachers
- Assessments and evaluations in the post-COVID-19 era
- Strategies for bridging the learning gaps caused by the pandemic

The seminar aims to bring together stakeholders in the education sector to exchange ideas, share best practices, and explore potential solutions to the challenges posed by the pandemic. The participants will have the opportunity to network and collaborate with fellow educators, researchers, and policymakers from various institutions.

Description:

The one-day state-level seminar on "Education in Post-Covid-19 World: Challenges and Opportunities" brought together educators, researchers, and stakeholders from different institutes. The seminar commenced with an inaugural session featuring keynote addresses from experts in education policy, public health, and technology. Subsequent sessions covered various themes related to education in the post-pandemic era, including:

- Remote Learning and Digital Divide: Discussions focused on the challenges and disparities in access to remote learning technologies and strategies for bridging the digital divide.
- Mental Health and Well-being: Experts shared insights on the mental health challenges faced by students and educators during the pandemic and explored strategies for promoting well-being in educational settings.
- Hybrid Learning Models: Presentations and case studies highlighted innovative approaches to hybrid learning, blending online and offline instruction to enhance learning outcomes and engagement.

Outcome:

- Informed Discourse: Participants gained a deeper understanding of the multifaceted challenges and opportunities facing education in the post-Covid-19 world through informed discourse and exchange of ideas.
- Networking and Collaboration: The seminar provided valuable networking opportunities for educators, policymakers, and stakeholders to collaborate on addressing common challenges and exploring collaborative solutions.
- Actionable Insights: Attendees left the seminar with actionable insights and strategies for navigating the complexities of education in the post-pandemic landscape, empowering them to drive positive change within their respective institutions and communities.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the one-day state-level seminar on "Education in Post-Covid-19 World: Challenges and Opportunities" served as a platform for reflection, dialogue, and action within the education community. By bringing together stakeholders from diverse backgrounds, the seminar facilitated a comprehensive exploration of the challenges and opportunities facing education in the wake of the pandemic. Moving forward, it is imperative for educators, policymakers, and stakeholders to continue collaborating and innovating to build a more resilient, inclusive, and adaptive education system that meets the needs of learners in the post-Covid-19 world.

Description:

The one-day state-level seminar on "Environmental Sustainability: Towards Nurturing a Greener Future" brought together experts, scholars, policymakers, environmentalists, and students to engage in discussions and deliberations on pressing environmental issues and potential solutions. The seminar featured discussions on topics such as climate change mitigation, renewable energy adoption, waste management, biodiversity conservation, and sustainable agriculture practices. Participants had the opportunity to learn from leading expert in the field, share their insights and experiences, and engage in constructive dialogue on ways to promote environmental sustainability at individual, community, and institutional levels.

Outcome:

- Increased Awareness: Participants gained a deeper understanding of the importance of environmental sustainability and the urgent need for collective action to address environmental challenges.
- Knowledge Sharing: The seminar facilitated the exchange of knowledge, ideas, and best practices among participants, fostering collaboration and synergy towards common environmental goals.
- Call to Action: The seminar inspired participants to take proactive steps towards environmental conservation and sustainability, encouraging them to adopt eco-friendly practices and advocate for policy changes to protect the environment.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the one-day state-level seminar on "Environmental Sustainability: Towards Nurturing a Greener Future" served as a platform for education, inspiration, and collaboration in the pursuit of environmental conservation and sustainability. By bringing together diverse stakeholders and fostering meaningful dialogue, the seminar contributed to raising awareness, sharing knowledge, and inspiring action towards building a more sustainable and resilient future for all.
