Report

Ice-breaking session for the students of Semester I was organized by the department of English as a regular practice of Purbasthali College. Dr. Bibhas Chandra Saha, Principal, Purbasthali College graced the occasion and delivered an inspirational speech for the newly admitted students of Purbasthali College. Then, the main programme started with a valuable presentation by Dr. Soumya M. Ghosh, Head of the Department of English, who familiarized the students with the CBCS framework, the structure of the course. He also tried his best to introduce the students with various aspects of the college, such as the vision, mission, code of conduct, grievance redressal methods, anti-ragging policies, and zero tolerance towards sexual harassment. The students were also informed that there are regular internal evaluations and class tests at every semester. The other student support initiatives like mentor-mentee system are also discussed.

The students had the chance to solve their queries by asking some questions. Finally, the programme was concluded with a vote of thanks by Sri Biswanath Bhattacharyya.
